The Carmel Pine Cone

Happiness Is A Field Of Golden Poppies

Lesley—What do they feel like? Peter—How do they smell? Michael—Which one shall I pick?
These are the reactions of three small Carmel children amid the golden glory of a field of California poppies. To Lesley, a year and a half old; Peter, going on three; and one-year-old Michael, the wonder of a world renewed in Spring is a new experience but everyone can share their delight. All around Carmel wildflowers are in bloom this Eastertide. —Richard Trueblood Photo

Local Churches Observe Easter

Easter observances in Carmel churches start today with Maundy Thursday services centered on the Last Supper. Tomorrow solemn Good Friday services will mark the Crucifixion. Saturday the Vigil at the Tomb will be represented in church services. On Sunday, the joy of the Resurrection will be recalled in observances with special music and singing.

For the second year, Carmel clergy will conduct an Ecumenical Good Friday Service. This year the service will be in All Saints' Episcopal Church from noon until 3 p.m. Participating clergy will be the Reverend Burkert Cree of the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula; The Reverend David Hill, rector of All Saints'; the Reverend Peter Farmer of All Saints' Day School; Father Roger Dieudonne of Carmel Mission Basilica; Dr. George Hunter Hall, pastor of the Carmel Presbyterian Church; Pastor Bernhard Bretheim of St. Philip's Lutheran Church; and The Reverend Alexander Bryans of the Church of the Wayfarer.

Listed below are other services in each church starting with Carmel Mission Basilica where Roman Catholics first observed Easter nearly two centuries ago.

CARMEL MISSION BASILICA

Tomorrow at 1 p.m., Solemn Liturgical Services of the Lord's Passion and Death, will be followed by Stations of the Cross, the removal of the Body of Christ from the Cross and public veneration.

Legal Snag Stops Council Action On Civic Center

An unexpected legal snag prevented the city council from accepting the low bid for construction of a new police station and street department corporation yard, last night, but councilmen set in motion procedure to enable the city to sell the present site of both these facilities as a means of providing some of the funds for the new construction when it is deemed necessary.

They were told by Edward Neroda, representing the low bidder, Comstock Associates, that the deadline for accepting the bid, midnight last night, will be extended for 30 days.

Mayor Herbert Blanks announced that the council had been advised by the San Francisco legal firm of Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe, attorneys for the Bank of America, that the method of financing proposed by the bank for the new police station and the street department facility was illegal.

Considering this information, although that given by Mr. Neroda, the council postponed, for 30 days, accepting or rejecting the Comstock Associates bid. In the meantime, at the council's direction, City Administrator Hugh Bayless will prepare a report on alternate methods of financing the new police station and corporation yard facilities.

At the public hearing on the sale of the present police station and corporation yard site, two citizens objected, Barnet Segal and Ritter Holman. This necessitated a 4-1 vote to enable the council to authorize the sale of the two-block property when it is deemed necessary by a majority vote of the council. The proceeds of the sale should be applied to capital outlay expenditures of the city in accordance with the general plan, the council also decided.

Councilman Gunnar Norberg cast the dissenting vote. He termed the proposed sale "one of the most foolish actions ever proposed by a city council," during an eight-minute speech.

"How long are we going to be caught on the horns of a comma?" he asked when advocating that the police station be moved to the Sunset Center site. He was referring to the ballot statement approved by the voters two years ago. It stated that Sunset Center was to be used as a "municipal cultural and community center."

The legal firm of Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe, attorneys for the city's bonding firm for the Sunset purchase (the same firm which said financing for the new police station was illegal), have held to the opinion that the word "municipal" was an adjective describing cultural and community uses. This precludes the placing of city hall and other city department buildings on the Sunset site, except as a temporary measure.

Past council action has hewed to this opinion, with Mr. Norberg always dissenting, as he did last night on the basis that the law firm was "splitting legal semantic hairs" in its statement.

Also last night he favored retention of the police station site for use as "in lieu" parking in accordance with the new city ordinance demanding off-street parking provision for new or major remodelled buildings.

Councilman Eben Whittlesey countered by stating that "the city has repeatedly objected to providing public parking for the business district at the expense of the taxpayer." He stated he was "tired of having a red herring dragged before us" in respect to Mr. Nor-

Carmel Is Different—Populationwise

Carmelites take pride in the fact that their city is "different." An example of this quality, as far as the population explosion in California is concerned, was cited this week by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

According to a release from this department, a special census conducted in Monterey County in January reveals that the population of Carmel has decreased since 1960. In the same period, 1960-66, the population of Monterey County has increased 13.1 percent and now numbers 224,316 persons.

In the six-year period, Carmel's population has dwindled from 4,580 residents to 4,136. The only other city in the county to show a population decrease is Pacific Grove. In six years it has lost 13 residents. Carmel's loss is 444 persons.

Editor's Column

During the past year, requests for reconsideration of council decisions, also the presentation of petitions, have evidenced dissatisfaction among the citizenry. How deep this unrest is will be made apparent in Tuesday's election.

One of the requests from leaders of the most vocal group opposing the council, the Klenke Committee, was that the question of future development of Sunset Center be placed on the ballot. This the council denied. All members but one considered voters had been given ample opportunity to express themselves on facets of the development of the municipal cultural and community center over a period of two years during deliberations of the council, the Sunset Commission and the Sunset Committee.

However, in effect, the future

Trees Threatened In Carmel Woods

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 a.m., property owners whose land fronts on several streets in Carmel Woods will meet with Myron Jost, deputy road commissioner for Monterey County, and Herb Champion, the county's assistant maintenance engineer.

Discussed will be county widening and drainage improvements which involves Cabrillo Street from Serra to Pico; Guadalupe, from Serra to Valley Way; Valley Way from Guadalupe to Carpenter; Pico from Santa Fe to Cabrillo.

The removal of probably 20-30 trees is involved in this project. The county claims these trees obstruct the radius of sight at intersections involved in the road widening project. Property owners in the vicinity of the work were sent letters by the county and tomorrow's meeting is the result.

COUNCIL CANDIDATES GIVE OPINIONS ON FIVE MAJOR ISSUES

At the request of the Pine Cone, the candidates who seek election to the city council on Tuesday have stated their opinions on five major issues facing not only the new city council, but also every citizen of Carmel. The replies printed on Page 2 should enable voters to determine which two candidates best suit their own ideas for the future of Carmel.

Each candidate presents statements on Sunset Center development; the civic center proposal and financing; hostelry tax allocation; annexation; and street lights in the business district.

Council Candidates Give Opinions On Sunset Center, Civic Center, Hostelry Tax, Annexation And Street Lights

MAYOR HERBERT BLANKS

1. The acquisition of the Sunset Center was an act of the greatest consequence to Carmel and its environs in that it preserved the property for the public domain and gave Carmel time to give full consideration as to how best to make use of it. There is now no great haste in this matter. The small tax increase made last year for operational expenses and modest capital outlay has proved adequate for present needs and some income is being derived from rentals. The Sunset Commission is operating a going concern, and there is no need for hasty decisions.

I believe that the Sunset Center must be wisely utilized, not only for the benefit of the residents of Carmel, but for the larger community. Carmel, with its small population, cannot conceivably support in itself a community and cultural center the size of Sunset Center. To do so will require the support of the entire community in producing a center that will insure Carmel's continued cultural leadersip. I am of the opinion that this can best be done by the formation of a group of interested citizens who will sponsor such an undertaking under the control of the city. This method of operation will relieve the taxpayers of the financial responsibility of paying for the operation and development of the project through increased property taxes.

2. I believe the civic center should be located at the Junipero and Fourth site. This is no new conclusion. My voting record on the council and planning commission for the past 11 years will show that I believe this is the logical and practical site, located in a business area on what was planned and will doubtless eventually be, the main entrance to Carmel. I do not believe this is a proper location for a PERMANENT corporation yard, but I fully agree that there is no better PRESENT location, and that Phase I of the site plan adequately provides for present demands until such time as there is a demonstrated need for a separate corporation yard.

3. The hostelry tax was passed with the specific purpose of accumulating funds for: (a) greenbelt acquisition, and (b) implementation of the General Plan. The ordinance specifies that 25% of the revenue will be reserved for greenbelt acquisition. Of the balance, a portion is committed to the retirement of the Sunset bonds, which mature in 1989.

I believe that uncommitted balances in the hostelry tax fund should be utilized to support activities which relate to the persons who produce the revenue. Our transient population, which pays the hostelry tax, creates a large part of our police and public works problems, and I can think of no more suitable place for the utilization of these funds than in this area.

4. Annexation. I have always felt that Carmel and its environs

DR. JAMES E. GILMAN

1. The City of Carmel assumed management of the Sunset Center on July 1, 1965. In keeping with the intent of the bond election, the Sunset Commission has attempted to put the center to its best and highest use for various community and cultural purposes. Space has been made available at nominal rent to the Bach Festival; Monterey County Symphony; American Federation of Arts; Young People's Art Museum, sponsored by the Carmel Arts Commission; the Harrison Memorial Library Board, and so on.

Various improvements have been made, such as new stage lighting, a new stage floor, upgrading of the fire and safety hardware. The Sunset Commission hopes to be able to improve the backstage area and paint the auditorium in the near future.

I think that the best interests of Carmel will be served by continuing to have the center operated and managed by the city through the Sunset Commission.

2. I am in favor of moving the police and street departments, including the corporation yard, to the Junipero Street site. This will greatly improve the morale of both departments as well as provide a much more efficient operation.

Construction costs will be approximately $385,000. The present police department site should bring in $100,000. If the city hall is moved to Sunset, and the land is sold, it should bring in another $150,000. There is now available approximately $90,000 from the hostelry tax which can be committed to the proposed civic center. These three items amount to $340,000, thus requiring a bank loan of about $45,000 to finance construction.

3. For the calendar years 1963, 1964 and 1965 the income from the hostelry tax was respectively: $73,300, $81,700 and $113,100. This tax is based on 4% of the gross rental income of the Carmel motels.

The Sunset bonds have first priority on the allocation of these funds and an amount sufficient to meet the interest and amortization is reserved for that purpose. Twenty-five percent of the tax is allocated to the acquisition of park and recreation land for greenbelt purposes. The balance is placed in a fund for the acquisition and improvement of lands for municipal purposes.

At the present time $90,942 is in the capital improvements fund and $93,566 is in the greenbelt acquisition fund.

Under the present ordinance all of the hostelry tax money must be used for capital improvements

WILLIAM SEFTON

William Sefton, an innkeeper with over 30 years business and industrial leadership experience, thinks it's time to put additional "business sense" leadership on the council. He thinks Carmel has reached the "crossroads" in protecting the atmosphere of the area and the economy of the community, as well.

His statements are: I favor establishing the city hall at Sunset Center and developing the property under the direction of the Sunset Commission and Carmel Arts Commission. Making available all facilities under a progressive program of upgrading, putting the entire property to full use. The commissions have made progress, but can do much more when we, the citizens, through our votes, make clear our desires. We then can get on with the job originally planned, when the purchase was made. The hostelry tax is paying off the bonds on this project. I think all monies available from this tax should be directed to the commissions for their upgrading programs.

The hostelry tax, amounting to over $100,000 per year, is part of the income from our visitors who are the "life blood" of our business economy. They come to Carmel to share with us our many natural bounties. They also come here to browse in our quaint, world-renowned shops. We must maintain a high quality type visitor through our cultural activities at Sunset Center and Forest Theater, which existed in the past and was known all over the world —this should be restored. It can be through collective action.

The placing of utility power facilities underground is a wonderful contribution to the beauty of our community. One only has to walk Dolores Street to witness this. I favor the test plan of ornamental lighting, so we can decide if we want lighting. I am opposed to any type lighting that will create a "white way" effect.

Annexation has many ramifications. It includes the matter of "county tax equalization," and un-

ERIK JENSEN

Having spent six of my eight years in Carmel in civic activities, primarily in the fire department, I chose to seek the position of city councilman for the following reasons:

The lack of coordination and communications by the various groups, committees and commissions has resulted in excessive expenditures of time and money, exemplified by the stalemated issues regarding Sunset Center, street lighting, annexation and a civic center.

The beauty, culture and many city services of the community, while shared by tourist, unincorporated resident and Carmelite, is primarily being paid for by the Carmel residents' tax dollar! While not encouraging the more mechanized and competitive type of business, I do believe a greater share of the money expended by the tourist and non-resident should be derived to maintain and promote the beauty, culture and city services of the community. A sharing by all will help in solving a community-cultural center, fire and police protection, street lighting and civic center problems confronting our community.

A lack of community progress, in this day and age of inevitable

CARVEL BALDWIN

1. I favor the retention of all the buildings in the Sunset complex, and upgrading, improving and beautifying and maintaining it by the use of non-reserve hostelry tax funds. It is possible by redecorating and refurbishing the auditorium to increase its use and income. The dirt area on the north end of the site could be transformed into a beautiful park-like area by a green turf, ornamental benches, trees, planting, and ornamental lighting.

2. I favor the construction of a new police station and corporation shops at the Junipero site, to be accomplished by the sale of the present city hall, police station and corporation yard. The balance of the financing to come from non-reserve hostelry tax funds now on hand, and not borrowing money against future funds anticipated for the next six years or more.

3. I favor the use of non-reserve hostelry tax funds for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the Sunset complex, to be spread over a number of years as the funds come in, never depleting the funds for any one project.

Also the use of green belt funds for acquisition of land in the commercial area by lease or purchase til this is settled, no one can make a clear cut decision.

I favor new corporation yard, and police facilities. I question the proposed costs, and this development should be financed with a bond issue. This project must be pursued without further delay.

are a geographical, social and cultural entity. As a strong believer in home rule, I hope that the unincorporated areas of Carmel will, in due time, join the city. The impetus must, however, come from outside Carmel. The city neither can, nor should, attempt to force an unwilling union.

5. Lighting. I am well satisfied with the recommendation of the committee which made the study and recommendation adopted by the council. I can see no harm in testing out two lights on Dolores Street. If a need for additional lighting is demonstrated, it can be provided at no great additional cost.

and land acquisition and may not be used for the routine costs of running the city government.

It appears that the present allocation is reasonable. However, it should be reexamined from time to time as circumstances warrant.

4. Carmel should not actively encourage annexation of adjacent areas. Any increase in the size of Carmel will require that the present sales tax money, which amounts to approximately $215,000 per year, be shared with the annexed areas. While Carmel would increase its property revenue by annexation, it is doubtful if this increased revenue would be sufficient to meet the added costs of city services to the annexed areas.

The net result of any annexation will be to raise the property taxes for our Carmel residents; place an increased burden on our police, fire and other city services; and increase the property taxes on the annexed property owners.

The possible benefits to Carmel do not, at this time, appear to warrant the increased costs and burden which annexation would entail.

5. We have less than 20 street lights in all of Carmel.

Two sample light standards will be erected on Dolores Street in the near future. This will give our citizens an opportunity to see and judge what is best and appropriate for Carmel.

After the lights have been in use for several months we will all be in a better position to make a reasoned and balanced judgment as to the type, size and lumen output that Carmel wants and needs.

for off street parking.

4. I favor the City of Carmel remaining its present size of ⅞ of a mile. Having been through an annexation attempt in another city, which failed by a large margin, I know that annexation would increase the cost to the taxpayers within the present city, but would also increase the taxes of those wishing to annex. There are many facets to annexation and space does not permit me to cover it in this statement.

5. I favor beautiful street lighting for Carmel and have worked very hard to accomplish just that. It has paid off as you can witness the transformation of Dolores Street between Ocean Avenue and Seventh Street. I am pleased with the plans of the Pacific Gas & Electric to place all of their power lines underground in the commercial area of Carmel.

progress, constitutes a shallowness of belief, overcome only through a system of controlled advancement that will afford environment shaped by the past and future.

Sunset Center, a civic center and the hostelry tax allocations are interwoven into a fabric in which each is in some way dependent upon the other.

If the Sunset Center property is developed under a feasible lease arrangement with a cultural agency, hostelry and sales taxes should increase, thus providing additional tax revenue for city services, present and future civic development and business.

If Sunset Center is retained by the city for development, the hostelry tax allocation for a civic center and future developments, more than likely will not increase.

The present city council has already been confronted with the enormous maintenance costs which would occur. One hundred thousand dollars per year? Where is the money for the development of Sunset going to come from? Another bond issue? Five and a half million dollars? Purchase and interest cost the taxpayers just slightly less than a million dollars for the Sunset bond issue.

When asked how much it cost to maintain Sunset this year, the most prevalent quote was, "Oh, about $20,000." Actually the correct amount budgeted is $20,791. Correct for what the city terms "standard accounts," i.e.: salaries, services, utilities, telephone, maintenance and repair, materials and supplies, etc. However the city lists the $20,791 under "Municipal Structures—Sunset."

Let's take a good hard look at some of the figures for the other city services. The total budget for 1965-66 is listed at $746,379. The police, fire, public works, administration, building inspection, and planning departments account for approximately $428,638. This figure includes: "standard accounts," "municipal structures (maintenance and repairs, materials and supplies)", and "capital outlay projects." Each of these three accounts is listed separately for the police, fire, etc., departments. "Standard accounts" and "municipal structures" are lumped together for Sunset, but "capital outlay projects" lists: "Sunset—$16,693 (Lighting — auditorium stage $16,000; vacuum cleaner — $277; floor machine, $416). This then gives us a more realistic figure of $37,484.

Upon further inspection $100 is shown for "paying agent-Sunset Bonds." And $1,650-Sunset Commission." And $28,318-"Sunset Bond Fund." Sixty-Seven Thousand, Nine Hundred Twenty-Seven Dollars!!! Not to mention items that are hidden within the other city departments' budgets — paving, grading, sidewalks, fire watch during auditorium performances, additional fire hydrants, fire extinguishers, fire insurance, building and fire reports and inspections, state compensation insurance, retirement, sick leave benefits,—!! "OH ABOUT $20,000."

Sunset cost $14,000 less to operate than the fire department this budget year, $16,000 more than city administration offices, $40,000 more than the building inspector's budget, $54,000 more than the planning commission.

These items are necessary to maintain Sunset, but now a more realistic picture emerges. Next year's budget is going to be higher, and the year after that still higher.

How are you going to spend your tax dollars next year?

Annexation is a matter for the people of Carmel to decide. If we have street lights, they should be attractive.

Jan Ramoni Is A Bride

In the glow of candlelight and the fragrance of white flowers, Jan Ramoni and Clayton Hilbert exchanged wedding vows in an afternoon ceremony performed by the Reverend Alexander C. Bryans at the Church of the Wayfarer last Thursday.

Jan, given in marriage by her father, Kenneth Ramoni, wore a pink linen dress embroidered in white with a matching pink coat. A small halo hat with veil covered her hair and her corsage of baby roses matched her ensemble.

Kimerly Graham of San Jose, the bride's cousin and only attendant, was dressed in a turquoise ensemble of A-line dress and jacket, with which she wore a small white straw sailor hat. Tiny roses in autumn shades made up her corsage.

Harrison Hilbert, home from Idaho State University, served as his brother's best man, and Bart Whelan, a lifelong friend, as usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ramoni chose a multi-colored print dress and tan leather coat with which she wore black accessories. The bridegroom's mother appeared in an aqua two-piece knit ensemble with black accessories. Gardenia corsages complemented their costumes.

The new Mrs. Hilbert is a graduate of Carmel High School, where she was a cheerleader and Homecoming Queen in her senior year. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mendonca of Big Sur and James Ramoni of Hollister, were here to witness Jan's wedding.

Clayton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Hilbert of Carmel, was an apprentice carpenter with a a local contractor before entering the U.S. Navy. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Benson of San Benancio Canyon; the nephew of Mrs. Harold Studevant of Seaside, former Carmel resident. His cousin is Robert Bell of Corral de Tierra.

Members of the young couple's families from San Jose, Seaside and Pacific Grove attended the reception in the Garden Room of the Church of the Wayfarer following the ceremony. The future home of the newlyweds, who spent their honeymoon in Yosemite, will depend on Clayton's status with the U.S. Naval Reserve. Pending receipt of orders, they are residing in Monterey.

Parties For A Bride Elect

Traditional parties for a bride elect have begun since Nancy Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Porter of Carmel Valley, chose April 30 as the date of her marriage to Lin Geary Eldridge of Palm Springs. Nancy has been home for the Easter vacation from the University of California at Santa Barbara and her fiance was here for the weekend as a guest of the Porters.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Whitcomb and Mr. and Mrs. George Leutzinger were co-hosts for a party honoring the engaged couple. A large group of Nancy's friends were invited to meet Lin at a festive buffet supper at the Leutzingers home.

Another group of Nancy's young friends enjoyed luncheon at the Beach Club on Tuesday as guests of Mrs. Mark Raggett.

The young couple, whose engagement was announced last November, will be married in an afternoon ceremony at All Saints' Episcopal Church.

Lin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Eldridge of Seattle and Palm Springs.

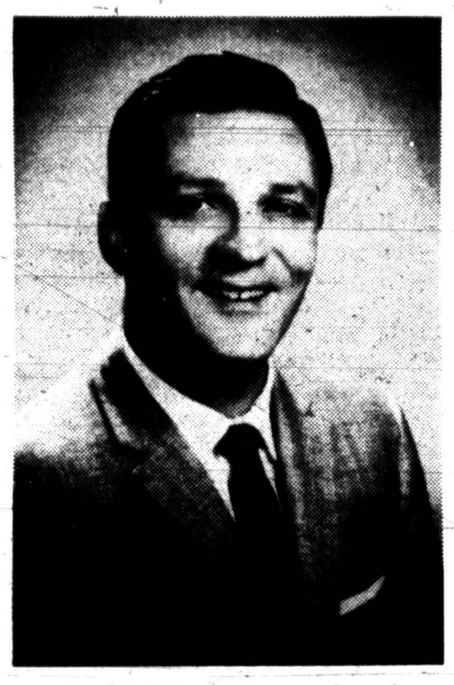
Meandered In The Sierra

"We spent one whole day between Sonora and Columbia, another between Columbia and Volcano," said Mrs. Herbert Blanks on the family's return from a most delightful trip in the Sierra foothill country. "The wildflowers were beautiful, the redbud out and abundant." Traveling with Mayor and Mrs. Blanks were two of their sons, Don, a student at Fresno State College, and Buck, engaged in graduate work at San Jose State College, and Buck's wife, Lo.

During their leisurely wandering over backroads, the group stayed at the colorful and historic St. George Hotel in Volcano, where they met former Carmelites Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morehouse, who were also enjoying the early Spring splendor there. While in Sonora, they encountered another Carmelite, Miss Gladys Kingsland.

Bert Blanks, according to his mother, won't be home for the Easter holidays because he is finishing a course for graduation from the University of California, Berkeley, before he enters the Army this month.



Donald W. Chapman has been named assistant vice president and assistant manager of Crocker-Citizens National Bank's Carmel office, Arne F. Halle, vice president and manager, has announced. Before assignment to Carmel, Mr. Chapman was stationed at the bank's San Rafael main office.

A graduate of the University of California, he holds a graduate certificate from the American Institute of Banking.

Horse Show Honors

Sally Hudson, representing Rancho Point Lobos, placed third in the jumper class for riders 13 years old and under last Saturday in the Grand National Junior Livestock Exposition at the Cow Palace in San Francisco. She rode Sheer Delight and on this horse also placed eighth in the class for jumpers with riders 18 years old and younger. Sally is the daughter of Superivsor Thomson J. Hudson and Mrs. Hudson.

In the working hunter class for riders 14 through 17 years old, Leslie Woods of Pebble Beach placed fifth on Kinken. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woods.

Clan Gathers At Petersens

The Maynard Petersens are stocking the larder in anticipation of a fine family reunion this weekend. The first wave hit last Friday with the arrival from U.C. Davis of Maynard Jr. and three of his Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brothers who grabbed a surfboard or two to spend a few days in Southern Califorina. Tim, busy practicing with the Monterey Peninsula College swim team, remains at home for Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith (Pam Petersen) are coming down from Moraga and the Paul Joneses (Susie Petersen) will be here from Half Moon Bay.

Captain Money Promoted

Captain Virgil M. Money, son-in-law of Colonel O. H. Prizer (USA ret) and Mrs. Prizer of Carmel, has been selected for promotion to major in the U.S. Air Force. He is a communications officer at Keesler AFB, Mississippi, with the Air Training Command which conducts the educational programs necessary to provide skilled fliers and technicians for the aerospace force.

The captain, who received his B.S. degree in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois, was commissioned in 1953.

Following transfer from Anchorage, Alaska, Captain Money and his wife, Jeanne, brought their two daughters, Cathryn and Deborah, for a visit here at the Prizers' home in Hatton Fields.

Thoroughgoing Tourists

While Mr. and Mrs. Steve Matteson were here from Chico this week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook, they divided the time for pursuit of their respective interests with amiable compatability and managed to cover an enormous amount of ground. Mrs. Matteson, an art instructor at Chico State College, was most naturally drawn to the various art galleries. Her husband, a high school biology teacher in Chico, is also an enthusiastic photographer, and the couple spent many hours hunting sea otters with camera in hand.

The Mattesons, by the way, had just heard that their son, Don, whose wife is the former Sunny Cook, has received a two-year research grant in the field of chemistry which may take the family to Munich. Don is a chemistry instructor at Washington State College.

Full House At The Tysons

The James Tysons' Carmel Point home is humming with activity again now that its owners have arrived from the East to spend a few weeks. Mrs. Tyson flew out a week ago, bringing with her Mrs. Marian Waldo of New York, Harold Earl of Paris and the Tysons' granddaughter, Jennie Ann Hoppin of New Canaan, Connecticut. Other guests are Mrs. Sidney Franklin (the former Janine Johnston of Carmel) and her children who are here from Malibu Beach for the Easter vacation.

On Saturday, Mrs. Tyson took time off from her paints and canvas to arrange a beach picnic for the visitors, inviting also Mr. and Mrs. Donnan Jeffers and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand d'Avenas and their family, and Mr. d'Avenas' niece, Genevieve de Caumont, of Belgium.

Mrs. Tyson drove up to the San Francisco airport Monday to put her granddaughter on an outgoing flight and to greet her husband on his arrival from New York.

Art News . . . .

The latest addition to Carmel's art galleries is the upstairs Little Gallery in the Loft on the south side of Ocean Avenue between Mission and San Carlos Streets. Owners of the gallery, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clifford Cole, invited friends, last Thursday evening, to preview the current exhibition by a group of representative local artists. Paintings are attractively displayed along a stairway and on the second floor providing an air of intimacy throughout the premises.

The American Federation of Arts gallery on Lincoln Street is showing watercolors by N. Eric Oback through April 30. He is an associate professor of art at San Jose State College and a member of the San Francisco Art Association, the West Coast Watercolor Society and the East Bay Art Association. His paintings have been exhibited in museums and art galleries throughout the United States.

An unusual show of 43 wildflower portraits fired in enamel on copper is currently on exhibition at the Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History. The artist is Kay Lydon from San Francisco, a college major in botany who has turned to art.

Her work has been shown at Rudolph Schaeffer School of Design, Toren Gallery, the California Academy of Sciences, the San Francisco Outdoor Art Festival, and others.

The enamel process for wildflowers is a special one devised by Miss Lydon. It allows for misty background interpretations of ferns and grasses overlaid by the featured subject providing depth and muted color. The mountings are of weathered wood.

This special exhibition may be viewed through May 1. Admission is free. Museum hours are daily from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. except Monday.

A former local resident, Lois Bennett, who is also an artist, says she has brought "a little bit of Carmel to Stockton" with the opening of her Bennett Art Gallery in the latter city. Featured is the work of Carmel artists including Royden Martin, who divides his time between Carmel and Stockton, Nancy Johnson, Bernice Huber and Helen Dooley. The gallery is located in an old Victorian house which is being adapted for art shows and an art school. Each month, a one-man show of an artist's work will be presented. This month works of Laurence Hosmer are being shown.

The current one-man show of the work of George De Groat at the Laky Galleries represents the Big Sur artist's work during the past year. The emphasis is on the human figure, in single and group compositions progressing from hot, pure colors to subtle negative spaces in single high value and simple warm colors.

The figure has always been of deep artistic concern to George De Groat. He studied first at the Newark School of Fine Arts, then at the school of the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts and the Otis Art Institute.

California and Mexico have been the primary inspiration of his later work. Conspicuous in his recent paintings is the locale of De Groat's present home in the Big Sur country. At Castro Canyon on a high plateau, his studio commands almost an unlimited sweep of the Pacific. Sea and sky, contours of cliffs, colors of seacoast flowers and the coastal sun are reflected in the quality of his 29 paintings and four drawings in the show at the Laky Galleries.

The junior art show of works by Monterey Peninsula students who attended Lyceum art workshops last fall is being shown in Room 11, Sunset Center. Hours for the show, sponsored by the Carmel Arts Commission, are from 3:30-5:30 daily except Sunday.

Seventy paintings by Leon Amyx, chairman of the art department at Hartnell College, and Helen B. Dooley, professor of art, now on leave from University of the Pacific, will be shown during the month of April by the Bakersfield Art Association in the Cunningham Memorial Gallery. Both artists are members of the Carmel Art Association.

Two contrasting exhibits will be featured in the April show of paintings at Dooley Gallery in Carmel.

Hoyt Grant, an abstractionist, and Mrs. Ruby White, a conservative painter, both from Stockton, are exhibiting in Carmel for the first time.

Mr. Grant's paintings are largely non-objective with emphasis on unique and personal color statements. He has exhibited in the Gold Hill Gallery, Virginia City, the Haggin Museum in Stockton, Lodi Annual Art Show and at the Stockton Festival of Arts. One of his paintings is in the permanent collection of the museum at Shimizu, Japan.

Mrs. White's paintings are interpretations from nature, particularly the West and Northwest landscape. Woods, waterways and boats are her field. She has exhibited in Madison Square Garden and the Smithsonian Institution, also in Springfield, Missouri, the Crocker Gallery in Sacramento and the de Young Museum in San Francisco.

A one-man show of drawings, paintings, and collages by Alex Gonzales will be on exhibit at the Grove Gallery from April 4 through April 30. Mr. Gonzales, who teaches art at Monterey Peninsula College, holds a master's degree in art from San Francisco State College and is a graduate of San Francisco Art Institute. His work has been included in many competitive exhibitions and he has had one-man shows throughout California, including the Crocker Gallery in Sacramento and the Gallery de Silva in Santa Barbara.

The Grove Gallery show will consist of new works by Mr. Gonzales revealing his unusual approach to the human figure. The gallery is located at 214 17th street, behind the Bank of America in Pacific Grove, and is open Monday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Talcott, Farr File

On March 25, Representative Burt L. Talcott (R. Salinas) formally filed as a candidate for re-election to a third term as 12th District Congressman which encompasses Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Santa Cruz and San Benito counties.

The next day, State Senator Fred Farr (D. Carmel) filed papers at the Monterey County Courthouse for re-election from the new 17th District which includes the same four counties as the Congressional district. He has represented Monterey in California's upper house for the past 11 years.

Previously, Gerald Barron of Carmel Riviera and Richard Miller of Pacific Grove filed as Democratic candidates to oppose Mr. Talcott in the June 7 primary election.

New Candle Shop Owner Takes Over

The name "Otrich" will again appear on the business cards of Candles of Carmel as Kenneth Otrich, son of the late Sumral Otrich who founded the business, and his wife, Charlene, have assumed ownership of the shop in the Golden Bough Court.

The new owner, a former resident of Castro Valley, has been sales engineer in charge of Northern California, Southern Oregon and the East Bay Area for a chemical engineering firm for the past 12 years. 'Glass Menagerie' Opens At White Oaks

Tennessee Williams' most autobiographical play, "The Glass Menagerie," will be presented by members of the White Oaks Theatre company beginning tomorrow at 8:30 p.m., then running Fridays and Saturdays through May 14.

This "memory play," as Williams termed it, is set in the post-depression thirties and depicts a family whose members attempt survival in a world too real for them to handle. Amanda, the mother (Karen Kondan), clings to dreams of Southern gentility while her crippled daughter, Laura (Sandra Lundwall), preoccupies herself with a collection of transparent glass animals rather than venture far from their St. Louis apartment.

The son, Tom (Michael S. Riordan), plans escape into adventure with the Merchant Marine. These three coexist in varying degrees of frustration until the appearance of Laura's first "gentleman caller" (Dave Wynne). He is, as Tom relates, "an emissary from a world of reality we were somehow set apart from."

Shirley Eoff has directed the White Oaks production for which the mood of memory has been made intrinsic in Gale Peterson's sets, Don Mulderick's lighting, and Corliss Nickerson's authentic costume designs.

Operation Update Begins Next Week

Dr. Keenan will speak on April 14 at 10 a.m. in the MPC library lecture hall on "Technological Change in the Decade Ahead." His lecture will be the first of a series of four on "California at the Crossroads — An Examination of Critical Problems Californians Will Face in the Next Decade."

All women on the Peninsula are invited to attend the lecture free of charge. A nursery service will be provided for mothers of preschool-age children and a parking area will be reserved.

Fashions By Lilli

Lucinda Williams models a Swiss cotton robe dress and capiz shell earrings with a French flag motif in the picture above. Standing, is Lilli (Mrs. F. Robert Smith) designer of the dress and jewelry which was shown recently, with other fashions by this original Carmel designer, in the Pebble Beach home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woods. Among the 50 guests invited to view Lilli's collection were Mrs. Charles O'Gara (seated left) and Mrs. Folsom Niebel.

In the far right picture, Leslie Woods, daughter of the hostess, serves sangria and empanadas to Mrs. Richard Osborne (center) and Mrs. Linn Mack who both arrived at the Lilli show after modelling for the nurses' association fashion show. The Mexican refreshments were prepared for the party by Elizabeth Touche, Yvonne Arras and Lulu Maharas. In the lower picture, the hostess, Mrs. Roy Woods, admires the ice blue terry shorts and poncho modelled by Elizabeth Touche. The Lilli collection ranged from sports apparel to elegant evening ensembles. Each outfit was worn with specially designed capiz shell jewelry which accented color and texture of the fabrics chosen by Lilli.

The Mexican fiesta atmosphere of the showing was enhanced by mariachi music played by two musicians, Daniel Lucero and Larry Esquivel, on a gallery overlooking the living room.

Party Plans

By Phyllis Jervey

The enchantment of eating outdoors will start weaving a magic spell on Easter Sunday. Even though a whole summer of picnic fun stretches ahead it isn't too soon to have a party patio. The delightful informality of al fresco dining is definitely a part of the Monterey Peninsula's main attraction. Sunny or foggy there is somewhere a charcoal grill giving forth enticing aromas.

For Easter we will have ham. The French specialize in "jambon en croute" for their "fetes champetres," so why shouldn't we? This delicious way to serve baked ham in a shell of savory pastry makes for easy entertaining. Baked ahead of time it may be served hot or cold. Following is the whole menu to go with the "piece de resistance."

EASTER PATIO PICNIC
Crisp Wing Sticks with Dill Dip
Patio Punch
Easter Ham en Croute
Festive Potato Salad

Hot Herb French Bread

Chocolate Chip Cookies

CRISP WING STICKS

Thirty-two fryer chicken wings; ½ cup flour; 2 tsps. salt; ¼ tsp. freshly ground pepper; 1 tsp. powdered nutmeg; 2 tsps. paprika; 4 eggs, beaten; 2 cups fine cornflake crumbs; vegetable oil.

Letter To Editor

Editor
Carmel Pine Cone

On March 29, the voters of the Carmel Unified School District were asked to determine whether they wanted to reduce the existing standards of education in Carmel schools or continue to move ahead. The decision of a majority of the voters was apparently for the former.

I would like to express my appreciation to the many people who worked so long and hard to convince the voters that the need is real. No one will ever know how many husbands had cold dinners because their wives were addressing envelopes or distributing information sheets.

The Peninsula newspapers deserve a special vote of gratitude for the excellent job they did in providing the voters with accurate, factual information concerning the issues presented. The unusually large turnout of voters was a reflection of the amount of interest generated by the newspaper articles.

The Carmel school board is now presented with the difficult task of determining what aspects of the educational program can be cut with the least harm to the students. The Monterey Peninsula Taxpayers' Association stressed, during the campaign, the need for "better schools not more expensive schools." I believe it is only fair that the members of the taxpayers' association now come forward with the specific ways in which they believe that this campaign slogan can be effectuated. To do otherwise would make a mockery of their position.

Only the passage of time will permit us to determine whether the decision of the voters was wise. I only hope this judgment can be rendered before it is too late to save what has been an excellent school system.

Yours very truly,
RICHARD T. WILSDON
Chairman, Citizens for Better Schools

wings at joints to make sticks. Combine flour with seasonings and roll wings in mixture until well coated. Dip into egg, then into crumbs, and fry in hot oil (½ inch deep in skillet) until golden brown and tender. When preparing this many, fry and place them in a shallow pan and keep hot in slow oven unless you are serving them cold. They have more eye appeal if presented on a bed of lettuce hearts, parsley or watercress.

DILL DIP

Combine 2 cups sour cream with 2 tbsps. chopped chives, 2 tbsps. crumbled fresh dill, ½ cup pickle relish and lemon juice to taste. If more "bite" is desired add Tabasco sparingly.

PATIO PUNCH
(Makes 20 servings)

Two qts. ginger ale; 1 qt. hulled strawberries; 1 cup sliced pineapple chunks; 2 cups pineapple juice; 1 cup orange juice.

Combine all ingredients and serve with ice cubes in which green and red maraschino cherries have been frozen.

EASTER HAM EN CROUTE
(Serves 12)

Three cups French Onion Thins crackers, finely rolled; 3 cups all-purpose flour; 1½ cups shortening; ¾ cup cold water; one 6-lb. canned ham.

Mix cracker crumbs and flour. Cut in shortening. Stir in cold water to form a very stiff dough. Turn out on heavily floured board and roll into rectangle a bit larger than the ham. Remove gelatin and fat from ham. Place it in center of pastry and fold this over ham. Invert on shallow baking pan. Flute edges of crust if desired and prick with a fork on top and sides. Bake in hot oven (400 F.) 50 minutes or until brown. Serve hot or cold with Dijon mustard and pickled cauliflower buds. Curried stuffed hard cooked eggs are a good Easter accompaniment.

HOT HERB FRENCH BREAD

Two long thin loaves of French bread; ½ lb. pound butter; ½ cup chopped parsley; 4 tbsps. grated Parmesan cheese.

Cream butter and stir in parsley. Cut bread crosswise into thirds, then split each third in half to make 12 pieces. Score cut sides about 1 inch apart almost through to crusts. Spread tops and into cuts generously with butter parsley mixture. If you prefer, use chives instead of parsley or use a combination of both. Sprinkle with cheese; place on cookie sheet. Bake it hot (400 F.) oven until golden crisp.

With an artistic and appetizing array of fresh fruits pass a straw tray of cheeses and crackers.

FESTIVE POTATO SALAD
(Serves 12)

Four 1-lb. cans small white potatoes; 1 cup finely chopped celery with tops; 1 cup sliced unpeeled radishes; ½ cup finely chopped green onions with tops; 1½ cups mayonnaise or boiled dressing; 1 tbsp. prepared horseradish; salt, pepper and paprika to taste.

Slice drained potatoes into medium pieces. Add rest of ingredients and toss well together. Serve icy cold with a separate bowl of crisp hand torn salad greens such as Boston or butterhead lettuce; watercress; iceberg lettuce; romaine or cos lettuce and escarole or broadleaf endive. Have a variety of bottled French and Italian dressings standing in a big bowl of ice cubes so each may dress their own.

CHOCOLATE CHIP COOKIES
(Makes about 4 dozen)

Half a cup shortening; ½ cup granulated sugar; ¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar; 1 egg, well beaten; 1 cup all-purpose flour; ¼ tsp. salt; ½ tsp. baking soda; 1 pkg. semi-sweet chocolate pieces; ½ cup chopped nuts; 1 tsp. vanilla.

Cream shortening and sugars together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Sift flour, salt and baking soda together. Blend sifted ingredients into creamed mixture. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheets 2 inches apart. Bake in 350 F. oven for about 12 minutes.

Doesn't everything taste twice as good outdoors? Now how about a stroll on Carmel's winding beaches or a drive along the coast or in the valley? The wildflowers are making a brilliant display with their bright blue and yellow lupine, California poppies and other native flora. Happy Easter!

Party Plans, this week, features food for a patio meal. In her column, Phyllis Jervey tells how to prepare the jambon en croute (above center) and the potato salad and chocolate chip cookies which flank the ham pie.

We're taking temperatures with a gun

This "heat gun"—an advanced, infra-red sensing instrument—can read the temperature of anything it's pointed at.

Lately, PG&E research engineers have been pointing it at the Pacific Ocean.

Using the heat gun, they can measure the temperature of ocean water by plane instead of by boat. This means they gather information faster and more completely and cut the time (and the cost) of studying ocean waters around PG&E steam-electric plants—where sea water cooling helps provide your electric power.

New methods on the job, pioneering research and creative engineering like this keep PG&E Service your best bargain!

Lost the address of a friend who lives out of town? Here's a helpful tip: Most telephone business offices stock a "library" of books from other parts of the United States. Come in any time to our office at 404 Franklin in Monterey and look things up. Who knows? You may renew a lot of old acquaintances!

Best wishes for a Happy Easter to all of you. If you're planning to call a relative or friend on Easter Sunday remember that reduced long distance rates will be in effect throughout the day.

We've all gotten a kick out of this story that made the rounds of the telephone office: A man being interviewed for a job was asked by the prospective employer if he'd ever done any public speaking. "I sure have," replied the applicant. "I once proposed to a girl over a rural party-line telephone!" Those were the good old days?

Crime doesn't pay. Certainly not if the criminal—one we read about—calls his wife long distance from the house he's robbing to say he's "working late!" When the homeowner received the charge on his phone bill, he informed police no one was home the date of the call. It was handier than fingerprints to check the number called for the thief's name and address!

berg's comma comments. The city is "committed" to the law firm's interpretation, he said and added, "we cannot extricate ourselves." The city had had "the best and most competent legal advice obtainable," he emphasized.

Councilman Stephen Grant pointed out that a sale of the police station would place this property on the tax rolls, while leaving it idle, as Mr. Norberg proposed, would not bring revenue to the city.

Received last night were two bids for the excavation only of the proposed police station and corporation yard site on Junipero. They were Granite Construction Company, $5,500; Calabrese Construction Company, $9,800. These bids were the result of objection by the local building trades union council to the city doing the work. They need not be accepted if it is proved that the street department can handle the job more economically than the lowest bid.

Other council action last night was to approve Mayor Blanks' reappointment of Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher, Ted Fehring and James Pruitt to the Sunset Commission for two-year terms. Exclusive use of Sunset Center auditorium for the month of July was granted the Carmel Bach Festival. A contract between the Richfield Oil Co. and the city, providing that landscaping the company's remodelled site at Eighth and San Carlos be maintained by the company, or by the city at the company's expense, was approved. This action was in accordance with a new condition applied to all use permits for business district development.

A request to purchase a new motorcycle for the police department, cost fully equipped $2,325, met with the council's unanimous approval. This will replace one which has broken down. A cost of $800 to repair this machine was demonstrated to be economically unfeasible. The purchase will be made from the city's capital outlay reserve fund which contains $11,000.

Over the objections of Victor Velissaratos, right angle parking was approved for the west side of Junipero between Seventh and Eighth. Mr. Velissaratos, who lives on the east side of the street, said this would be a traffic hazard.

The council "took notice" of the fact that the alcoholic beverage license of Fred Godwin had been transferred to Golden State Corporation which has purchased La Playa Hotel from the former Carmel mayor.

The present council will meet again on April 19 to canvass the ballot of Tuesday's election. The two councilmen elected will be seated that evening.

And Up on the Hilltops
Where you can watch the changing greens on the serene Valley Hills, and the fields of poppies. See our fascinating adobe and redwood in close in Carmel Knolls—we think it's one of the most interesting homes we have. Priced at $55,000, an adjoining lot is also available.

Or go with us to a knoll above Carmel Valley Village for a nearly new and really elegant 3 bedroom home with a sunny delight of a kitchen and a view of Everywhere, priced at just $57,500.

Have You Seen the Valley in Spring?
We have so many interesting things to show you out there now. One is a ten acre parcel with a rambling, ranch style home and a swimming pool, set in an old orchard, which is especially lovely to look at in spring. And consider the investment future of 10 acres on the Valley road.

And every morning is like the first spring morning of the world in a fascinating designer's home in the oak trees with a 40 acre green belt for a back yard and a thousand delights in the play of light and shadows through its many interesting windows. Two bedrooms or four, and there's a separate-but-attached studio. Intrigued? By all means let us show you.

Or the Rolling Upland Meadows?
Ceanothus, the wild coast lilac, is a blaze of purple on 183 acres near Rocky Point Restaurant, on the East side of the Coast Highway—wonderful potential development. Or we'll take a picnic lunch if you'd like to run out to the Cachagua and consider 18 acres for only $25,000. That's beyond Carmel Valley Village, you know.

It's Spring in the Coastal Canyons
See our rugged little cabin on a beautiful acre of redwoods on the banks of the Palo Colorado for only $15,900. Or a parcel divisible into several lots up in the Garrapata redwoods for only $5,500 (not a misprint—$5,500!). Or consider the sheer enchantment of Garrapata Creek as you follow it through our 70 acre parcel about 15 minutes from Carmel, price tag $210,000. Plans were once made here for development including a golf course. Ask Hank Adams.

Wherever You Most Love to Be in Spring,
There we have something to show you! Let us tailor a tour to your particular interests. You'll be so glad you did.

Easter Observances In Carmel Churches

dle and a children's party at 4:00 p.m.

Confessions in the Carmel parish will be available from 3:30-4:30 p.m. on Good Friday and from 6-7 p.m. on Easter Eve.

On Easter Day, at 7 and 8 a.m. there will be Holy Communion; at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m., a Choral Eucharist with sermon by the rector, the Reverend David Hill.

At the 11 o'clock service, under the direction of John Gosling, Robert Forbes, organist; Jean Johnson and Richard Sheere, vocal soloists; and Owen Dunsford, violin; Ted Hampton and Leo Stuckens, violas; Louise Vadetsky and Ruby Harlan, cellos; and Rosemarie Haslett, harp; with the choirs of the church, will present special music.

ST. PHILIP'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

The Easter Sunday Festival Worship Service will be held at 10:00 a.m. in the temporary meeting place of the congregation in Carmel Middle School at the entrance to Carmel Valley. Pastor Bretheim will use as his Easter sermon theme, "My Redeemer Lives."

The church choir will sing as its Easter anthem, "Good Christian Men, Rejoice and Sing" by Melchior Vulpius. Families will share their Easter lilies as a decoration around the altar.

Visitors in Carmel will be welcome at this worship.

COMMUNITY CHURCH

On Easter Sunday, the youth group of the church, IKTHYS, will sponsor a sunrise service at 5:30 a.m. on the church site in Lower Carmel Valley near Middle School. Breakfast will follow at the Estrada Adobe in Monterey and reservations must be made before 10 a.m. tomorrow. Cost is 50 cents.

The Easter Worship Service will be at 11 a.m. on Sunday. The Reverend Burkert Cree will have as his sermon theme, "Can Easter Be Born Again For Us?" The congregation will gather in the church's temporary quarters in River School for this service.

CHURCH IN THE ROUND

Members and friends of The Church in the Round are invited to a simple family breakfast on Easter at 9:30 a.m. in the church's new location in the Nix Studio at Mission and 8th Streets. The youth group of the church has planned an easter egg hunt for the small children during the breakfast. The Church in the Round completed its move this week from the former meeting place in the American Legion Hall.

At the 11 a.m. service, the Reverend Karel Vit will present "A Liberal's Concept of Easter."

CARMEL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

There will be three services on Easter Sunday at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

The Bethlehem and Carol choirs (children's) will sing, at the 8 o'clock service. The Chancel Choir of adults will sing at the 9:30 and 11 o'clock services.

Norma Jean Hodges, soprano, will be soloist at the 8:00 and 9:30 services and Harriet Bird will sing, at the 11 o'clock service.

A nursery for infants and small children will be provided all three services. The Church School at 9:30 will be for the three-year-old class and kindergarten only—all other church school students will attend church.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

The ministry of Christ Jesus, his crucifixion according to St. Luke, and the resurrection account from John, form the basis for this Sunday's Bible Lesson at Christian Science church services.

Responsive Reading from Isaiah will include this verse: "Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you."

The church soloist, Norma Jean Hodges, will sing "The Easter Garden" by Caldwell, as a part of the music for the service, accompanied by Mrs. Philip Holyoake, organist.

Passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy) will include these lines:

"There were rock-ribbed walls in the way, and a great stone must be rolled from the cave's mouth; but Jesus vanquished every material obstacle, overcame every law of matter, and stepped forth from his gloomy resting-place, crowned with the glory of a sublime success, an everlasting victory . . . He proved Life to be deathless and Love to be the master of hate."

Subject of the Lesson-Sermon: "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"

BENEFIT TUESDAY FOR POLICE OFFICER

On Tuesday, John and Lilo Vance will turn over all proceeds from the day's sales at their Arbor Restaurant to the Francis Jorgenson Fund for the benefit of the Monterey police officer who is suffering from leukemia. The restaurant, located on the corner of Dolores and Seventh Streets, will be open all day. Members of the Carmel Police Department will help cook and serve during the day.

Quiet Easter Week For Carmel Police

Carmel, overflowing with tourists and vacationing teen-agers, has had a relatively quiet Easter week so far, according to Carmel police reports. Increased traffic resulted in a number of minor vehicle accidents and petty theft was up as more and more people left cars unlocked or personal belongings unattended.

Local juveniles accounted for more complaints than did visitors, in contrast to some years ago before Chief Clyde Klaumann instituted his policy of holding out-of-town juvenile offenders until picked up by their parents.

Five local youths and two girls were implicated in malicious mischief at Sunset Center, where they broke into buildings Sunday night, wrote on walls, disturbed furnishings and scattered soap powder around. In separate complaints, two pairs of male juveniles were arrested for obstructing traffic, another pair for possession of liquor.

On Sunday, two young girls from San Jose were taken into custody for violation of curfew and having camping equipment on Carmel beach. The girls, thought by their parents to be staying in Monterey with friends, were picked up by one of the mothers.

Two youths from Redwood City were brought to the police station Tuesday after Robert Zarp complained they were sleeping on his property. The boys turned out to be reported runaways.

'MESSIAH' PERFORMANCE ON PENINSULA SATURDAY

A complete rendition of Handel's "Messiah" will be given at 8 p.m. Saturday evening in King Hall at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School. John Gosling will direct the 85-voice Monterey Peninsula Choral Society and the Monterey County Symphony Chamber Orchestra in this performance. Vocal soloists will be Leona Gordon, soprano; Claudine Carlson, mezzo-soprano; and Edward Jameson, tenor.

All seats will be reserved. Tickets may be obtained at Central Box Office or from the recreation office in Herrmann Hall at the Naval School.

Editor's Column . . .

development of Sunset Center will be before the voters on Tuesday. By selecting two councilmen whose opinions best tally with their own, voters may express themselves on this issue.

Similar evaluation of the candidates' stands on the civic center proposal and financing; revision of present hostelry tax allocations; street lighting for the business district—all vital issues the two councilmen elected Tuesday will have, most likely, to act upon—will enable voters to decide what representation they want on the city council during the next two years.

Members of the Klenke Committee have stated they represent the citizens of Carmel, and have taken issue with the council during the past year on each of the above items.

On Tuesday, whether or not they did represent a majority of dissatisfied Carmel citizens, also deep unrest, will be demonstrated at the polls. Every voter will have the opportunity to decide the future of Carmel with a carefully considered vote. M.L.

SMOG ALERT SOUNDED!

THE BATTLE TO KEEP AIR POLLUTING INDUSTRY OUT OF MONTEREY COUNTY NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT!

Less than 6 months ago, 15,000 citizens of Monterey Co. signed Petitions showing that they wished to keep Monterey County clean and were opposed to an oil refinery at Moss Landing. The County Planning Commission supported the stand taken by citizens working for clean air and compatible industry. The Supervisors turned us down. We obtained 12,500 more signatures almost overnight for a referendum. This issue is still being tried in the Courts. Judge Harris' first decision indicated that the Supervisors' administrative action was valid, subject to further possible arguments by the opponents. The arguments will be presented on the 11th of APRIL. Our legal advisors feel that we could win, but:

WE NEED HELP FINANCIALLY.

Your generosity has carried us through the first round of the fight. Now we face additional legal fees and costs, plus the need for a greater educational campaign once we win our case.

IF EACH PERSON WHO SIGNED A PETITION WILL SEND ONE DOLLAR, WE WILL BE ABLE TO CARRY ON OUR LEGAL AND EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN – AND WE WILL WIN THE FIGHT.
